Water groups and arrays

H2O: Why Water Is Special

Name _____ Date _____

Write one answer in each blank. Use repeated addition to show every equal group or row.

1. Big fills 3 ice trays with 4 ice cubes in each tray. How many ice cubes are there altogether?

$4 + 4 + 4 =$ _____

Show your thinking.

2. Little makes 4 rows of 3 water drops on wax paper. How many drops are in the array?

$3 + 3 + 3 + 3 =$ _____

Show your thinking.

3. There are 5 cups with 2 water drops drawn beside each cup. How many drawn drops are there altogether?

$2 + 2 + 2 + 2 + 2 =$ _____

Show your thinking.

Water groups and arrays

H2O: Why Water Is Special

Name _____ Date _____

Write one answer in each blank. Use repeated addition to show every equal group or row.

4. Big arranges 3 rows of 5 paperclips for a water test. How many paperclips are in the array?

$5 + 5 + 5 =$ _____

Show your thinking.

5. Little checks 2 ice trays with 5 ice cubes in each tray. How many ice cubes are there altogether?

$5 + 5 =$ _____

Show your thinking.

6. Little makes 5 rows of 4 water drops on wax paper. How many drops are in the array?

$4 + 4 + 4 + 4 + 4 =$ _____

Show your thinking.