Six clues to count

The drops that did not fall.

Name _____ Date _____

All numbers are pretend. Draw, use tens and ones, or show your steps.

1. Little counts 38 dew drops on one leaf and 47 on another. How many drops are there altogether?

38 + 47 = _____

Show your thinking.

2. A spider web has 72 dew beads. After sunrise, 38 evaporate. How many beads remain?

72 − 38 = _____

Show your thinking.

3. A leaf has 28 drops. Then 17 more form, and later 19 evaporate. How many drops remain?

28 + 17 − 19 = _____

Show your thinking.

Six clues to count

The drops that did not fall.

Name _____ Date _____

All numbers are pretend. Draw, use tens and ones, or show your steps.

4. Little draws 4 rows of dew beads with 6 beads in each row. How many beads does Little draw?

$4 \times 6 =$ _____

Show your thinking.

5. Little has drawn 27 drops and wants 60 in the notebook. How many more drops must Little draw?

$27 + ___ = 60$

Show your thinking.

6. Follow Little’s drawing command: add 5 drops each time. The counts are 12, 17, 22. What count comes next?

12, 17, 22, ___

Show your thinking.